

Our land a greater status, greater height
In history ... why, even while I write I sense his spirit moving through the halls,

Between the Chinese vase, Cashmere shawls,
You, everywhere, in every nook - and see His genius in every thing - and we Worship that presence, bow our heads and say:

"Dear Prince of collectors! you have come to stay -
You are immortal and shall never pass away!"

This Museum is the finest liberal University in the country.

Harindranath Chatterjee
5th March 1913 - Wotten at Lalur, Burdwan